

I give RM-10787 my full support as I feel this would at the very least accomplish two things retain more of the current amatuers in the field and provide a infusion of new members. The requirement of morse proficiency is an antiquated standard and it should not be a requirement any longer but rather an optional item. Thank you for your time and consideration.